Grounds for Certain Adverse Actions

Policy Change Adopted on Second Reading

The Higher Learning Commission (HLC) Board of Trustees (“the Board”) adopted this policy on second reading at its meeting on June 23, 2022

Background

The adopted policy changes standardize the grounds for denial or withdrawal of candidacy and withdrawal of accreditation. (The grounds for denial of accreditation are different and remain unchanged.)

The changes also establish that certain additional Board procedures are not applicable in situations where the Board withdraws candidacy or withdraws accreditation because an institution has ceased to operate as an institution of higher education or has lost its legal authorization to operate as an institution of higher education and grant degrees in HLC’s jurisdiction.

HLC circulated these policy changes to the membership and other interested parties after the Board’s February 2022 meeting. No comments were received warranting changes in language.

Implementation

This policy is effective immediately.

Wording that was deleted or revised is shown as strikethrough (old wording); new language, whether through addition or revision, is shown in bold (new wording). These revisions have been made on HLC’s website at hlcommission.org/policies.
Policy Title: Denial or Withdrawal of Status
Number: INST.E.60.010

Withdrawal of Accreditation
The Board of Trustees shall consider withdrawing the accreditation of an institution only when that institution has been determined to be out of compliance with one or more HLC requirements. The specific grounds for withdrawal of accreditation shall be that the institution does not meet one or more of the Criteria for Accreditation and/or is not in compliance with other HLC requirements, which may include the Federal Compliance Requirements, the Assumed Practices, the Eligibility Requirements or the Obligations of Membership during the accreditation period.

This determination may be made by the Board after any of the following:

1. a focused visit, advisory visit, or comprehensive evaluation, or other peer review evaluation;
2. a period of Notice or Probation;
3. a Show-Cause process;
4. upon recommendation of the President, if an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding the recommendation; or
5. upon recommendation of the President, regardless of whether an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding the recommendation, if the institution fails to comply with the Obligations of Membership within a reasonable period after receiving notice of noncompliance and regardless of whether an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding;
6. upon recommendation of the President, regardless of whether an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding the recommendation, if the institution ceases to operate as an institution of higher education; or
7. upon recommendation of the President, regardless of whether an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding the recommendation, if the institution fails to maintain authorization to operate as an institution of higher education and grant degrees in HLC’s jurisdiction.

Other than a team recommendation to withdraw accreditation arising from an advisory visit process, which is referred to the President, any team recommendation to withdraw accreditation will automatically be referred to an Institutional Actions Council Hearing Committee. The Board will consider both the team recommendation and the Institutional Actions Council Hearing Committee recommendations in its deliberations. A recommendation for withdrawal of accreditation by the President is made directly to the Board, and there is no Institutional Actions Council Hearing in this case. HLC shall, in keeping with INST.E.70.010 Additional Board Procedures, make a Board Committee Hearing available to the institution prior to a decision by the Board, in keeping with INST.E.70.010 Additional Board Procedures.

Denial or Withdrawal of Candidacy Status
The Board of Trustees shall only take actions denying or withdrawing action to deny or withdraw the candidacy status of an institution that fails to meet the requirements for achieving and maintaining Candidacy, as detailed in HLC’s policy on Candidacy and Initial Accreditation (INST.B.20.020), or that fails to demonstrate conformity with the Obligations of Membership during its candidacy period. This determination may be made by the Board after any of the following:

1. in the case of denial of candidacy, a focused visit, advisory visit, comprehensive evaluation or other peer review evaluation;

2. in the case of withdrawal of candidacy, a comprehensive, focused or other evaluation during candidacy;

2. upon recommendation of the President, if an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding the recommendation; or

3. upon recommendation of the President, regardless of whether an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding the recommendation, if the institution fails to comply with the Obligations of Membership within a reasonable period after receiving notice of noncompliance;

4. upon recommendation of the President, regardless of whether an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding the recommendation, if the institution ceases to operate as an education institution of higher education; or

5. upon recommendation of the President, regardless of whether an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding the recommendation, if the institution has its legal authorization to operate as an institution of higher education and grant degrees in HLC’s jurisdiction terminated and regardless of whether an on-site visit has occurred within the year preceding.

A Other than a team recommendation to deny or withdraw candidacy, other than one arising from an advisory visit process, which is referred to the President, any team recommendation to deny or withdraw candidacy will automatically be referred to an Institutional Actions Council Hearing Committee. The Board will consider both the team recommendation and the Institutional Actions Council Hearing Committee recommendations in its deliberations. A recommendation for denial or withdrawal of candidacy by the President is made directly to the Board, and there is no Institutional Actions Council Hearing in this case. In cases involving a recommendation to withdraw candidacy, HLC shall, in keeping with INST.E.70.010 Additional Board Procedures, make a Board Committee Hearing available to the institution prior to a decision by the Board, in keeping with INST.E.70.010 Additional Board Procedures.

Denial or withdrawal of candidacy status is an adverse action and thus is not a final action and is subject to appeal.

In no event shall the final effective date of withdrawal of candidacy status be prior to the conclusion of the current academic term inclusive of the institution’s issuance of degrees immediately following such term. The Board in its sole discretion may also consider an effective date that takes into account a reasonable period for the institution to conduct a Teach Out in accordance with other relevant HLC policies and procedures.

• withdraw accreditation, except where the withdrawal decision is related to a recommendation of the President regarding the Obligations of Membership, the institution ceasing to operate as an institution of higher education, or failing to maintain authorization to operate as an institution of higher education and grant degrees in HLC's jurisdiction.

HLC shall make a Board Committee Hearing available to an institution prior to a decision by the Board concluding a Show-Cause Order process.
